

FINCA EL CAMINO, MALBEC, 2019

Wine Introduction

Finca El Camino brings out the best expressions of Bodegas La Rosa vineyards that are located at the foot of the Cordillera de los Andes. All of them impregnated with magic and a thousand-year history.

Tasting Notes

A lively color where violet hues are remarkable. Bright, fresh, dark fruit nose such as plums and cherries with earthy, forest floor hints. On the mouth, it presents a good balance of juicy red fruit flavours. Easy to drink with a very pleasant finish.

Winery Background

Bodegas La Rosa was founded in 1892 and continues to this day to maintain its tradition of producing value and excellent quality wines as a result of experience and technology. For over a century, quality has been their main instruction. It continues on seducing different palates and creating the right environment for family gatherings, or the simplicity of a meeting amongst friends, thus, getting the appreciation of its wines and its privileged position.

Now, one of the 7 wineries owned by Grupo Peñaflor, Argentina's largest wine group, Bodegas La Rosa is well placed to continue producing wines which are true to their terroir.
