

RUTINI TRUMPETER, MALBEC, 2018

Wine Introduction

The Trumpeter range was designed to present wines of great quality and character while offering great elegance. A true expression of Rutini vineyards at the foothills of the Andes mountains. With high altitudes, optimal conditions and favorable climate to cultivate, this collection is the quintessential representation of the grapes of each varietal.

Tasting Notes

It displays an inky and dense color with attractive cherry aromas and a touch of cinnamon and sweet spice. A full, fruity wine, with excellent body, intense tannins, and flavors of cherry, blackberry, boysenberry and plum intermingled with hints of cardamom and pepper, and a long, full finish.

Winery Background

Founded in 1885 by Felipe Rutini, Rutini Wines have been one of the pioneers of the Argentinean wine industry ever since. Leading the industry in 1925, the Rutini family planted the first vineyards in Tupungato, in the heart of the Uco Valley. Named after one of Mendoza's mountain peaks, the Tupungato Valley was no more than a stop-over on the road to the mountains when the Rutini family began to plant their first vines. At an elevation of 3000 to 5000 feet sea level, the Tupungato Valley offers many different microclimates, creating optimal growing conditions. Today it is recognized as one of Mendoza's premier viticulture regions.
