

ROCHE MAZET, CHARDONNAY, 2017

Wine Introduction

Chardonnay is the second most cultivated grape variety in France and prospers especially well in Pays d'Oc. In this region, the hills are packed with favorable clayey limestone and stony soils, where Roche Mazet selects wines from the best plots to craft a unique blend. Part of this meticulous combination is aged in wood to add body to the fruit and enhance the rich aromatic palette of this grape variety.

Tasting Notes

Roche Mazet Chardonnay displays a luminous pale robe with golden tints. On the nose, it has an elegant blend of honeyed pear, fresh almond and sweet spice aromas. On the palate, it is creamy and velvety with woody and vanilla flavours. The whole is crafted into a perfect combination of balance, roundness and elegance.

Roche Mazet picks out the places where the best of each grape variety is expressed and carefully blends them together with respect and great passion. While each Roche Mazet wine is a varietal, it is made up of a selection of fruit of that grape variety, a blend of different interpretations from different terroirs.
