

RUTINI TRUMPETER, TORRONTÉS, 2018

Wine Introduction

The Trumpeter range was designed to present wines of great quality and character while offering great elegance. A true expression of Rutini vineyards at the foothills of the Andes mountains. With high altitudes, optimal conditions and favorable climate to cultivate, this collection is the quintessential representation of the grapes of each varietal.

Tasting Notes

As Argentina's signature white varietal, the Trumpeter Torrontés is a unique white wine with distinctive floral aromatic character. Enticing aromas of white peaches are accompanied with hints of jasmine and rose. On the palate, it has a pleasant freshness with citrus notes, beautiful structure, and acidity, with a long and full finish.

Winery Background

Founded in 1885 by Felipe Rutini, Rutini Wines have been one of the pioneers of the Argentinean wine industry ever since. Leading the industry in 1925, the Rutini family planted the first vineyards in Tupungato, in the heart of the Uco Valley. Named after one of Mendoza's mountain peaks, the Tupungato Valley was no more than a stop-over on the road to the mountains when the Rutini family began to plant their first vines. At an elevation of 3000 to 5000 feet sea level, the Tupungato Valley offers many different microclimates, creating optimal growing conditions. Today it is recognized as one of Mendoza's premier viticulture regions.
